

Structure to follow when writing Use case Description (use case narrative and use case scenario

Use Case ID
Use Case Name
Created By
Date Created

Description
Primary Actor
Secondary Actor
Include use cases	1. 2.
Extends use Case	1. 2.
Preconditions	1 2
PostConditions	1. 2.
Main Flow	1. 2. 3.
Alternative flow	2a ScenarioName1 1. 2. 4a ScenarioName 1. 2.

Example

Use Case ID	ACC_UC_1
Use Case Name	Login
Created By	Ruth Bwembya
Date Created	1-1-2012

Description	This use case allows the user to login into the system to access the relevant functions according to the user's role. The various user role are staff, admin staff, system administrator, manager and department head. To login to the System , all users have to enter their unique staffed which is their NRIC number. The users have a maximum of 3 attempts to login after which their account is locked and they will have to contact the system administrator to unlock their account upon successful login the system will display the relevant user's homepage
Primary Actor	User
Secondary Actor	None
Preconditions	1. User have to have a valid user account
PostConditions	1. The system display the relevant homepage
Main Flow	1. The user enters the staffID and password 2. The user submit the staffID password 3. The system validates the staffID password 4. The system verifies the staffID and password 5. The system displays the user's homepage 6. The use case ends
Alternative flow	3a Missing staffID and password 1.The system prompts for staffID and password 2.Ue case resumes at the main flow step 1 3b Maximum three attempts exceeded 1. The system displays " Maximum attempts exceeded , contact administrator" message 2. The system locks user account 3. The use case ends 4a. Invalid staffID and/or password 1. The system displays " Invalid staffID and/or password" message 2. The system prompts for staffID and password 3. Use case resumes at main flow step 1